Performances:

We perform fairly often, ranging from sports events to full blown concerts. Performance times and dates can vary and are not necessarily during normal rehearsal times. On any given performance, we tend to give at least a week's notice—usually more, rarely less. It's not unusual to perform several days in a single week. All performances are mandatory unless an extenuating circumstance prevents you from being there. Extenuating circumstances are decided at the Secretary and President's discretion.
